YEAR 1737JUNE 24PETITION OF JEAN LABRANCHE TO SUPERIOR COUNCIL

Monsieur Salmon, Counsellor and Commissary of Marine, Director and first Judge of Superior Council of Province of Louisiana.

---

Jean Labranche who lives above Fort Tchoupitoulas, humbly states that at the time he was to have begun harvesting his crop, his field was invaded by all the cattle belonging to Madame Petit, and in spite of his efforts to keep them out, they returned and remained for eight days, causing much damage.

Although he has complained to Madame Petit of damage in his field, she has done nothing to compensate him. Complainant then had three planters estimate damage done, and according to said estimate herewith attached, amounts to a loss of 4 barrels of buckwheat, 3 quarters of corn, and 8 quarters of Appalachian beans.

Madame Petit has since agreed to payment of the small amount of 30# for full damage.

At New Orleans, June 13, 1752.

Order given by Council,
June 24, 1752.

(Signed) Salmon.

SUCCESSION OF SR. ST. JULIEN
(For land claim of Dupare against this succession)
(see Succession of Dupare, #13101, June 21, 1739.)

Petition of the Administrator of Vacant Successions

vs.

Sieur Aufrere, evidently a former partner of decedent.

Petitioner alleges that in the inventories made in the city and at the tar works of the effects and negroes of said succession, Sr. Aufrere failed to include a slave named Jannot.

Petitioner further alleges that Sr. de St. Julien had sold to Sr. Chauvin a negro named Cha; that Sr. Bienville, Governor, and Sr. Salmon, Intendant, had forbidden Sr. Chauvin (a Canadian) to take said negro to Illinois; that Sr. Julien explained to them that he had replaced said negro and therefore that the Company of the Indies had no right to oppose the departure of Cha; that thereupon Sr. Chauvin was allowed to take said negro to Illinois; that Sr. St. Julien, having received payment therefor, declared that he was going to pay to Sr. Larche and his wife the amount due for the negro Jannot which Sr. Busson had sold him; that subsequently he gave the receipt for such payment to his negress Calais, who became Jannot's wife; that while St. Julien was on his death-bed, Aufrere obtained said receipt from her; that Aufrere claims that it was he who paid the price of Jannot for account of St. Julien and when St. Julien refused to refund it, Aufrere sought to have the sale annulled.

The negress Calais declared that three years having passed and St. Julien having failed to pay for Jannot, Sr. Larche, son-in-law of Sr. Busson, had said negro put in prison.

Petitioner prays for an order directing the sale at public auction of the negro Jannot and his wife, Calais, and decreeing a settlement of the whole matter.

COUNTER PETITION OF FRANÇOIS CALIMACHE.

The manager of the D'Artagnan's Concessions at Cannes Brulée, to a petition of Mr. Gerard, Pery, for the payment of 1000 livres on a promissory note, dated June 20, 1736, signed by Francois Calimache.

Petitioner states that according to an ordinance of 1667, a plaintiff must be sure of his demand and must file all papers and documents pertaining to the case, or all summons will be invalidated. The note in the case given to Mr. Lebrun, and being payable to bearer, Mr. Pery cannot claim the amount without further proof of ownership.

Mr. Lebrun, having lost the sum of 1000 livres to Mr. Pery at a game of lansquenet, asked petitioner for a note to secure the debt.

Petitioner wants the Council to decide who is the owner of the note, Mr. Pery or Mr. Lebrun. Mr. Lebrun claims that he owes nothing to Mr. Pery, and demands the return of his note on the grounds that the collection by court decree of gambling debts is strictly forbidden by a law upheld by the parliament of Paris and provinces.
