Declaration of Sr. Darby

Sr. Darby, sub-lessee of plantation belonging to said succession, protests against the depletion of said plantation by sending many of its slaves to war, leaving only sick negroes, who are unable to work. He complains that he was obliged in order to save the indigo crop to take his own negroes away from his plantation, thereby losing a considerable quantity of his own rice crop.

Sr. Darby also makes a report of a birth and two deaths of negro babies, increase in live stock and deaths thereof.

SUCCESSION OF DAME MARIE ANNE BERTIN, WIDOW BY FIRST MARRIAGE OF NOEL BUSSON,

OF JACQUES LARCHE.

Protest of Sr. Larche.

Sr. Larche alleges that his said wife at her death left five minor children, three of whom were born of her first marriage, the other two being the issue of her marriage with said Sr. Larche; that he has learned that steps are being taken to elect a tutor to the minor children of decedent and Sr. Busson, without considering the children of decedent and Sr. Larche.

He claims the right to be elected tutor of all of the five minor children of decedent; binds himself to pay her debt to the Company of the Indies and protests in behalf of the children of Busson as well as in behalf of his own, against any proceeding contrary to their interest.

SUCCESSION OF SR. FRANÇOIS TRUDEAU

Petition of Sr. Delapommeray, son-in-law of decedent,
in charge of the Succession,
for sale and lease of properties and maintenance of
J. B. Trudeau Laveau.

Petitioner alleges that the Succession is indebted to the Company of the Indies in the sum of approximately 20,000 livres; to various creditors, totaling the sum of about 6000 livres; and to the King in the sum of 800 livres for excess salary collected by Sr. Juzan, also a son-in-law of decedent.

Petitioner further alleges that in order to pay said debts it will be necessary to sell three lots of ground situated in New Orleans, and a number of the slaves belonging to said succession, and to lease judicially the plantation and other negroes, pending the return of the absent heirs.

Petitioner further alleges that among the heirs is Jean Baptiste Trudeau Laveau, partially emancipated minor, for whom it is necessary to provide maintenance, pending partition of the property.

Petitioner prays that the heirs who are in the

Sr. de La Pommerais
(acting for said Succession)

vs.

Sr. Dalcour

Petition for payment to the Company

Petitioner alleges that Sr. Dalcour and Sr. François Trudeau, deceased, had purchased from Sr. Bourbeau a certain lot of ground, in payment of which they had assumed an indebtedness of the vendor to the Company of the Indies, in the sum of 4000 livres; that subsequently Sr. Trudeau sold his half share in said lot to his co-owner, Dalcour, who in turn assumed the indebtedness therefor to the Company, amounting to 2000 livres; that said Dalcour has not paid said debt and has not obtained a discharge from the Company, in favor of decedent, despite amicable demand.

Petitioner prays for judgment condemning defendant to pay to the Company of the Indies the sum of 2000 livres in full settlement of the account of Sr. Trudeau, deceased; or in the alternative,

SR. HUBERT HARANGSr. Dreux
vs.
The Administrator of Vacant Successions.

Petition.

Petitioner alleges that Sr. Harang, desirous of disposing of a negress which he had obtained in exchange for a certain negro sold to him by the Company of the Indies, appealed to Sr. Dreux Senior to pay to said Company for his account the balance due on said negro; that it was understood that the amount of said payment was to be deducted from Dreux's indebtedness to Harang for supplies from his store, as evidenced by Dreux's promissory notes; that decedent declared to petitioner in the presence of Jean Le Bimon that he would release said promissory notes and settle for the surplus amount paid by Dreux for his account.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that the Administrator of Vacant Successions be ordered to release said promissory notes and to pay to petitioner the balance of decedent's indebtedness to him as set forth hereinabove.
